Numb. 13277. [55]

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 25, to Saturday January 29, 1791.

Whitehall, January 29.

THE King has been pleased to grant to John Cockburn, of Rowchester in the County of Berwick, Esq; and to such of his Issue as may come into Possession of certain Estates in the County of Ross, devised by the last Will of his Wife's Uncle, William Ross, late of Shandwick in the County of Ross, Esq; deceased, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and assume the Surname and bear the Arms of the Family of Ross of Shandwick, in Addition to his own Surname and Arms, in pursuance of the said last Will; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Dublin Castle, January 22, 1791.

THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincere Expression of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Family and Government.

Feeling the strongest Interest in every Event which affects our Gracious Sovereign, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we sincerely participate with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects in the Regret occasioned by the Loss of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; a Prince whose Virtues had justly endeared Him to all your Majesty's Subjects.

We return our humble Thanks to your Majesty for the Communication made to us from the Throne, that the Differences which had arisen between your Majesty and the Court of Spain have happily been brought to an amicable Termination; and we beg Leave to make our grateful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for having been pleased to order Copies of the Declarations exchanged between your Majesty's Ambassador and the Minister of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has since been concluded, to be laid before us.

We rejoice that the Honor of your Crown, and the Protection of the Rights and Interests of the Empire, have been secured by the Wisdom of your Council's, without any actual Interruption of the Blessings of Peace. Had the Pursuit of those Objects involved your Majesty's Kingdoms in the Calamities of War, we are persuaded your Majesty would have received the most active and zealous Support from your loyal and faithful Kingdom of Ireland.

We will immediately consider, and will endeavour to form, during this present Session, such Regulations as may tend to simplify the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue; a Measure which will facilitate the Business of Commerce, and in which the Ease of the Merchants is consulted.

We shall not fail to observe your Majesty's gracious Intimation of the Care due to the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures of the Kingdom, and particularly the Linen Manufacture; and your Majesty may be assured that the Protestant Charter Schools and other Public Institutions for charitable Purposes, shall receive our accustomed Attention.

We sincerely thank your Majesty for continuing the Earl of Westmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, and have the fullest Reliance that the Peace, Happiness and Prosperity of this Country will continue to be firmly maintained under his Excellency's

[Price Eight-pence.]

Excellency's Adminiſtration: We gladly embrace this Opportunity of expreſſing our full Senſe of thoſe ſignal Bleſſings which this Kingdom has derived from your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; and ſhall ever truſt in your Majeſty's Protection as a ſure Foundation of the Happineſs of your People.

W. Watts Gayer,
Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the pureſt Sentiments of Loyalty, and the warmeſt Expreſſions of Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

We avail ourſelves of the firſt Opportunity to convey to your Majeſty our Condolence at the great Loſs your Majeſty has ſuſtained in the lamented Death of your Royal Brother, His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

We are grateful to your Majeſty for the Communication which has been made to us, by your Royal Command, that the Differences between your Majeſty and the Court of Spain have been terminated without any actual Interruption of the Bleſſings of Peace; and for having been graciouſly pleaſed to order Copies of the Declarations exchanged between your Majeſty's Ambaſſador, and the Miniſter of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has ſince been concluded, to be laid before us.

With peculiar Satisfaction we reflect on the Termination of thoſe Differences, ſo happily accompliſhed by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that if the Honor of your Crown and the Rights of the Empire had involved your Kingdoms in the Calamities of War, your faithful People of Ireland would have ſtood forward, with their accuſtomed Loyalty and Zeal, to ſupport your Majeſty in the Maintenance and Protection of thoſe important Objects.

We will chearfully provide ſuch Supplies as ſhall be found adequate for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of your Majeſty's Government.

We are not inſenſible to that Regard for our Intereſts, which has induced your Majeſty to direct our Attention to Regulations for ſimplifying the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue; and we ſhall endeavour to frame ſuch Proviſions as may be found moſt advantageous for the Eaſe of the Merchants, and the Facility of Commercial Buſineſs.

The Increaſe of our Agriculture, our Trade and Manufactures, and particularly our Linen Manufacture, muſt encourage our Exertions for their further Extenſion and Improvement; and we ſhall not remit our uſual Attention to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Public Inſtitutions for charitable Purpoſes.

We cannot but return our ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for the Continuance of the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, under whoſe judicious Adminiſtration the Nation is preſerved in Tranquillity, and advancing in Wealth and Credit. We are confident he will at all Times make a juſt and favorable Repreſentation of our Exertions in the National Service; and we are ſatisfied of his Excellency's unremitting Endeavors to fulfil your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Commands, by contributing to the Happineſs and Proſperity of Ireland.

Rob. Theroton, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will immediately tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We receive with cordial Satisfaction the important Information which your Excellency has been pleaſed to communicate to us, by the King's Command, that the Differences which had ariſen between His Majeſty and the Court of Spain have happily been brought to an amicable Termination; and we thank your Excellency for having directed Copies of the Declarations exchanged between His Majeſty's Ambaſſador and the Miniſter of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has ſince been concluded, to be laid before us. We rejoice in the happy Effect of His Majeſty's Exertions to maintain the Honor of His Crown, and to protect the Rights and Intereſts of the Empire; and we congratulate your Excellency on thoſe Objects being accompliſhed without any actual Interruption of the Bleſſings of Peace. Had His Majeſty's Kingdoms been involved in the Calamities of War, we beg your Excellency to be aſſured that His Majeſty would have received from His loyal People of Ireland the moſt zealous and decided Support.

Your Excellency's Deſire to facilitate the Buſineſs of Commerce, and to conſult the Eaſe of the Merchants, demands our warmeſt Thanks. We will not fail to conſider, and endeavour to accompliſh during this Seſſion, ſuch Regulations as may tend to ſimplify the Collection of the various Articles of the Public Revenue.

We will not remit our Care of the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom, and particularly of the Linen Manufacture; and we will direct our Attention to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Public Inſtitutions for charitable Purpoſes.

We acknowledge our high Obligations to your Excellency for the Intereſt you take in the Welfare of this Kingdom; and we are peculiarly ſenſible of His Majeſty's Goodneſs in the Continuance of your Excellency in the Government of this Country, under whoſe Adminiſtration our Agriculture, Trade, and Manufactures have increaſed; and, fully perſuaded of the Honor and Integrity of your Excellency's Character, we can ſafely rely on your faithful Repreſentation of thoſe Sentiments of Loyalty,

Zeal

Zeal and Attachment, which will ever diſtinguiſh His Majeſty's faithful People of Ireland.

W. Watts Gayer,
Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Return you my ſincere Thanks for this obliging Addreſs. Your Confidence ſtrengthens my Exertions for the Public Service; and I ſhall endeavour to preſerve your good Opinion, by directing my Conduct to every Object which may promote the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our cordial Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered to be laid before us Copies of the Declarations exchanged between His Majeſty's Ambaſſador and the Miniſter of the Catholic King, and of the Convention which has ſince been concluded, which has ſo happily brought to an amicable Termination the Differences which had ariſen between His Majeſty and the Court of Spain; and we partake ſincerely of the Pleaſure which your Excellency feels in communicating this ſatisfactory Intelligence.

We aſſure your Excellency, that you have not entertained an unfounded Confidence in our firm Determination to have afforded to His Majeſty the moſt vigorous and effectual Support, if it had been neceſſary to reſort to Arms for protecting the common Rights and Intereſts of the Empire, and for maintaining the Honor of His Majeſty's Crown; at the ſame Time we acknowledge the Wiſdom of thoſe Councils, which have accompliſhed theſe important Objects without any Interruption of the Bleſſings of Peace.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered the National Accounts to be laid before us: We ſhall chearfully provide for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of His Majeſty's Government.

We are alſo to make our Acknowledgments to your Excellency for having ordered to be laid before us the Account of the extraordinary Expences incurred during the late Negotiation with the Court of Spain; and we ſhall readily provide for thoſe Expences, ſatisfied that the Confidence repoſed in your Excellency has not been miſplaced.

It is a decided Proof of your Excellency's Attention to our Intereſts, that you have recommended to us to ſimplify the Collection of the various Articles of Public Revenue: We ſhall engage in this Subject with Alacrity, and ſhall hope to accompliſh your Excellency's wiſe Intentions, by facilitating the Diſpatch of Commercial Buſineſs, and conſulting the Eaſe and Convenience of the Merchants.

We will not fail in our uſual Attention to the Agriculture, Trade and Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, and to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Public Inſtitutions for charitable Purpoſes.

From a fuller Acquaintance with your Excellency's public and private Virtues, we look forward with the ſincereſt Pleaſure to the Continuance of your Reſidence in this Kingdom. We are ſenſible of your Wiſhes for it's Intereſts, and of your Anxiety to promote them; and, grateful for the Advantages we enjoy under your Excellency's wiſe Adminiſtration, we ſhall perſevere in our Exertions for His Majeſty's Service, and the Eaſe and Honor of your Government.

Rob. Thoroton, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Requeſt you to accept my beſt Thanks for this very honorable Teſtimony of your good Opinion. I will ſtrenuouſly endeavor to merit a Continuance of your Confidence, and to prove by my Conduct the Sincerity of my Wiſhes for the Proſperity of Ireland.
